Re: United States v. Hon
Docket No. 22-CR-60 (HG)

Dear Judge Gonzalez:

I am writing as the attorney for Amanda Hon, whom Your Honor sentenced on November 15, 2024 to serve a sentence of two years probation that included six months of home confinement. Ms. Hon has completed the home confinement portion of her sentence, and it is my understanding that she has complied with all of the terms and conditions imposed by the Court. However, she is still on probation.

Ms. Hon is requesting that she be given blanket permission to travel to New York City and the Boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens without being required to seek permission from Probation and the Court each time that she needs to travel from her home in New Jersey. The reasons for this request are multiple:

(1) Ms. Hon will be engaging again in community service that will require her to be in the City;

(2) Ms. Hon needs to visit her elderly parents, both of whom reside in the City;

(3) Ms. Hon is interviewing for prospective employment in New York City and the interviews require her attendance there. Once she obtains employment, she will be required to be present in the City.

Her Probation Officer has advised that, unless the Court orders otherwise, she must apply for permission each time she wishes to travel from New Jersey to New York.

Respectfully submitted,

James O. Druker
